

the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended. This report meets the requirements for Senate scorekeeping of Section 5 of S. Con. Res. 32, the First Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for 1986.

This report shows the effects of congressional action on the 2004 budget through July 28, 2003. The estimates of budget authority, outlays, and revenues are consistent with the technical and economic assumptions of the 2004 Concurrent Resolution on the Budget, H. Con. Res. 95, as adjusted.

The estimates show that current level spending is above the budget resolution by $1.833 billion in budget authority and by $2.985 billion in outlays in 2003. Current level for revenues is $1 million below the budget resolution in 2003.

Since my last report, dated July 3, 2003, the Congress has cleared and the President has signed the following acts that changed budget authority, outlays, or revenues: the Veterans' Memorial Preservation and Recognition Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-29), the Welfare Reform Extension Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-40), and the Burmese Freedom and Democracy Act (P.L. 108-61).

I ask unanimous consent to print a cover letter and attached tables in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, July 29, 2003.

Hon. DON NICKLES,
Chairman, Committee on the Budget,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The attached tables show the effect of Congressional action on the 2003 budget and are current through July 28, 2003. This report is submitted under section 308(b) and in aid of section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act, as amended.

The estimates of budget authority, outlays, and revenues are consistent with the technical and economic assumptions of H. Con. Res. 95, the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2004, as adjusted.

Since my last report, dated June 2, 2003, the Congress has cleared and the President has signed the following acts that changed budget authority, outlays, or revenues: the Veterans' Memorial Preservation and Recognition Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-29), the Welfare Reform Extension Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-40), and the Burmese Freedom and Democracy

Act (P.L. 108-61). The effects of these new laws are identified in Table 2.

Sincerely,

ROBERT A. SUNSHINE
(for Douglas Holtz-Eakin, Director).

HONORING OUR ARMED FORCES

Mr. LIEBERMAN. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Private First Class Wilfredo Perez, Jr., United States Army, of Norwalk, CT. Private Perez's loyalty, patriotism, and selflessness has served to further the legacy of our great Nation's principles of freedom and justice. His service to our Nation is an example of the powerful spirit that permeates American history. His country, his family, his Army, his brothers-in-arms, and his friends from home will keenly miss Private Perez.

A mortarman in the 1st Battalion, 67th Armor Regiment, 4th Infantry Division, PVT Perez and members of his unit were guarding a hospital where wounded comrades were being treated.

In a contemptible and cowardly act, a grenade was lobbed from the upper floors of the hospital, killing PVT Perez and two other gallant soldiers.

PVT Perez, or "Junior," as his family called him, was an outgoing and charming person, well liked and remembered fondly by both staff and classmates of Norwalk High School as someone who had found focus and was pursuing his dreams. He cared about his family, and had a propensity for the simple things in life, like playing golf with his dad, working on his car or skiing. He worked with his dad as a remodeling contractor prior to going into the Army and his family had high hopes for him as he started to plan for his future.

I am both proud and grateful that our military is made up of young men and women whose values are exemplified by PVT Perez's service to the United States Army and his country. PVT Perez was a messenger of high justice and idealism in the best tradition of American principles and patriotism.

I join a grateful Nation in extending my heartfelt condolences to his family. Thank you for sharing this outstanding soldier with us. His country, his Army, his brothers-in-arms and his friends at home will keenly miss PVT Perez. You may be justifiably proud of his contributions to a noble cause and a people in need.

ANTHONY G. FREEMAN

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, at the end of this week, Anthony G. Freeman will leave the post of Director of the
